

Santa Fe Officials Rally Behind Joe Campos for Lieutenant Governor

Santa Fe city and county officials have come forward with rousing endorsements for Joe Campos for Lieutenant Governor. Campos, who is serving his fourth term as a state legislator, has impressed the officials with his leadership in ethics reform, renewable energy, and job creation.

Joe Campos is the clear choice for Lt. Governor / His Legislative experience is unmatched by other candidates. His proven leadership as a locally elected official will ensure that the unique needs of New Mexico cities and counties will be a priority of state government. His honesty and integrity will work of the people of New Mexico. Support Joe Campos, the candidate with proven leadership and experience that WORKS!

-Rebecca Wurzburger, Mayor Pro Tem Santa Fe City Council

Now more than ever when the state of New Mexico is becoming a leader in renewable energy it needs a proven leader who is dedicated to ensuring that the needs of New Mexico and New Mexicans are met. Joe Campos is that proven leader who will ensure more and cleaner renewable energy so that New Mexico and New Mexicans can have a greener future. I fully support and endorse Joe Campos for Lieutenant Governor.

-Ronald S. Trujillo, Santa Fe City Councilor

I am very impressed with the depth of Joe's knowledge about renewable energy issues for our state. His ideas are what we need for our future.

-Kathy Holian, SF County Commissioner

Joe has the experience and knowledge to move this State forward. He is a decisive leader who can make the hard decisions.

-Matthew Ortiz, Santa Fe City Councilor

Joe Campos is the standout candidate for Lieutenant Governor. Through four sessions of the legislature, he has worked for the benefit of all New Mexicans. In addition to ethics reform and renewable energy leadership, Joe has been a champion for animal protection and providing emergency health services. We need an experienced leader. We need Joe Campos as our next Lieutenant Governor.

-Carol Robertson Lopez, Former Santa Fe City Councilor

Joe is about new leadership and a new direction in government.

-Paul Campos, Former Santa Fe County Commissioner

Joe Campos responds,

"I am honored to have the support from these fine Santa Fe City Councilors and County Commissioners. I have served as a mayor, a county commissioner, and a state legislator, and the Santa Fe City Councilors and Commissioners and I share a common interest, a common motivation, a common experience, and a common record of achievement, working on behalf of the citizens to improve the quality of life for New Mexicans. As lieutenant governor, I will continue to work diligently to find solutions to challenging issues such as jobs and education. My working relationships with city governments and county governments will be a valuable asset and form the basis of valuable partnerships in moving New Mexico forward.
